

2011 Global Education Photo Showcase

Thursday, January 27, 2011

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

North Quad, Media Center Gateway

Introduction and Welcome ..... 5:15 p.m.
 Sha' Duncan-Smith, the Center for Global and Intercultural Study, Intercultural Programs Manager

Jamie Lausch, North Quad, Programming Coordinator

2010 Photo Contest Winners and Prize Distribution ..... 5:30 p.m.
 Nicole Bonomini, Center for Global and Intercultural Study, Communications Coordinator

Strolling Reception ..... 5-7:00 p.m.

The North Quadrangle Residential and Academic Complex

provides a focal point for international and intercultural programming. This unique combination of living and learning environments offers a highly innovative experience that connects upperlevel undergraduate students to their community and the world.

North Quad
105 South State Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1285

The Center for Global and Intercultural Study

was created to provide a wide variety of global engagement and learning opportunities to the University of Michigan community. CGIS programming serves students with diverse academic interests at sites in all regions of the world, international and domestic.

The Center for Global and Intercultural Study
1712 Chemistry Building
930 N. University
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1055

*Welcome to the 2011
Global
Education
Photo
Showcase*